

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Talking Pumpkin

Imagine you are at the pumpkin patch searching for the perfect pumpkin when you hear a voice. You come across a pumpkin that can speak. What does it say and what adventure do you go on together?

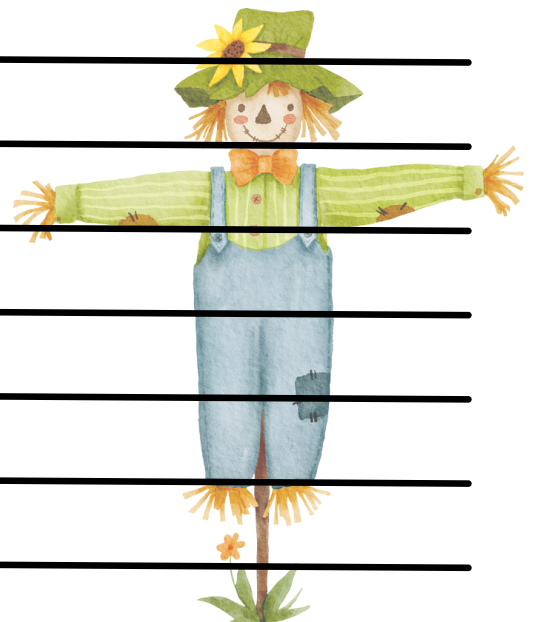

[illegible]

Name: _____

Date: _____

If I Were a Scarecrow

Pretend you are a scarecrow in a cornfield. What do you see, hear, and feel as the days go by? What would you be wearing?

A cartoon scarecrow is positioned in the bottom right corner of the page. It has a round face with a simple smile, rosy cheeks, and a green hat adorned with a large yellow flower. Its body is made of straw, and it wears a green long-sleeved shirt with a yellow bow tie and blue overalls. The scarecrow's arms are outstretched to the sides. It stands on a small tuft of brown grass with a single yellow flower at its base. The entire page is filled with horizontal black lines, providing a guide for handwriting practice.

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Friendly Ghost

Imagine meeting a friendly ghost who only appears in the fall. What do you and the ghost do together? What would your friendly ghost's name be? What type of personality traits do they have?

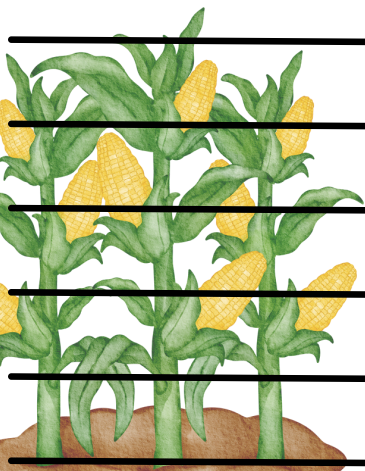

A cartoon illustration of a witch in a white sheet, holding a broom and a jack-o'-lantern, with a bat and stars in the background. The witch is wearing a black pointed hat and has two large black eyes visible through the sheet. The broom is brown and the jack-o'-lantern is orange with a carved face. The background is white with several horizontal black lines.

Name:

Date:

The Corn Maze Challenge

You're in the middle of a giant corn maze and can't find your way out. Who helps you, or how do you escape? What skills do you already have could you use to help you through the maze?

An illustration of three corn plants with green leaves and yellow ears of corn, growing out of a patch of brown soil at the bottom left corner of the page. The rest of the page is filled with horizontal black lines for writing.